In this latest album, SUMRRÁ makes the inspired exercise of taking perspective and rethinking our own existence through music. The three musicians based in Santiago de Compostela look with new eyes at the "Sapiens Sapiens", the "Inner Space" that lives inside each one of us, or the "Ra", the first Star, the source of all life. They reflect on our eternal position in the "Universal Periphery," or the permanent dance of the "Gravitational Forces." They tell through their music what happened "13.7 billion years later", or why there are 7 degrees that separate "Aswan from Alexandria". A result as surprising as it is revealing. Lucid, overwhelming, brilliant "7 visions" ... SUMRRÁ's seventh album is here.

Neste último album, SUMRRÁ fai o exercicio tan inspirador de coller perspectiva, e replantexarse a través da música a nosa propia existencia. Os tres músicos afincados en Compostela miran con novos ollos ó "Sapiens sapiens", ó "Espazo interior" que habita dentro de cada un de nós, ou a "Ra", o astro Rei, fonte de toda vida. Reflexionan sobre a nosa eterna posición na "Periferia Universal", ou á permanente danza das "Forzas Gravitatorias". Contan a través da súa música qué foi o que aconteceu "13.700 millóns de anos despois", ou por qué son 7 os graos que separan "Asuán de Alexandría". Un resultado tan sorprendente como revelador. "7 visións" lúcidas, arrolladoras, xeniáis... O 7 de SUMRRÁ, xa está aquí.
